A screenshot of a software dialog box titled "Organization Names". The dialog has a standard Windows-style title bar with a question mark and a close button. Below the title bar is a menu bar with buttons for "New", "Open", "Edit", "Delete", and "Find". The main area is divided into several sections. On the left, there is a list box titled "Org Codes" containing the following items: AF, CAP, CARD, CASH, DEMO *, EF, END, GEN, R100, R200, R300, SCH, and UNR. To the right of this list is a text field labeled "Org" and two checkboxes: "Default Organization" and "Is Fund". Below these is a text field labeled "Name". Underneath the "Name" field are two larger text areas: "Invoice/Receipt Address" and "Logo". At the bottom left, there is a text field labeled "Letterhead like Single Line Address" and a "Taxation Method" section with three radio buttons: "Default" (which is selected), "Canadian", and "VAT". To the right of this is a list box labeled "Interest Code". At the bottom left, there is a text field labeled "Registration Number". The dialog box has a "Print" button at the bottom left and "Save" and "Cancel" buttons at the bottom right.

Check with your secretary of state and review the United States Internal Revenue Service Code governing your organization to make sure you follow all rules and regulations regarding changing the name of your association or foundation.. Changing the name of a nonprofit organization isn't simply an internal decision made by the board of directors.. Depending on what type of nonprofit organization you are and in which state your organization is incorporated or chartered, you'll need to follow a few, simple legal procedures.
